“Standard” Award Matrix

Normally a particular rank/rate or billet; that decision is best left to the submitting activity. Typically, however, there is a connection between those measures of responsibility and the awards which are received. An award submission that falls outside of the norm will be reviewed more critically than others and will require additional justification to receive approval. The following matrix is not all inclusive but provides an approximate norm for awards approved in the past.

Commander W. T. DOOR, distinguished himself by exceptionally meritorious service as Technical Support Detachment Officer-in-Charge, Naval Surface Warfare Center, Indian Head Explosive Ordnance Disposal Technology Division, Indian Head, Maryland from January 2016 to September 2018. CDR DOOR demonstrated superior leadership as a driving force in the sustainment and development of the Combined Explosives Exploitation Cell (CEXC) Program. His efforts were critical to four successful CEXC platoon deployments to Afghanistan in support of Combined Joint Task Force Paladin and Operation ENDURING FREEDOM. Additionally, he provided critical information and strategic development support to worldwide combatant commanders to further the exploitation mission in support of national level objectives and Joint Service missions, arming these organizations with exploitation knowledge and capabilities critical to the C-IED fight. His expertise and strategic vision greatly contributed to the integration and inclusion of exploitation capability in combatant commander operational and contingency plans. Through these and many other distinct accomplishments, CDR W. T. DOOR exceptional service to his country has had a profound impact on current and future EOD and Technical Exploitation operations. His efforts reflect great credit upon himself, the United States Navy, and the Department of Defense.

For outstanding meritorious service while assigned to USS NEVERSAIL from 20 May 2012 to 31 March 2014. Lieutenant Commander W. T. DOOR was the guiding hand in every major decision, improvement, and addition to USS NEVERSAIL during his tenure. Through his efforts 170 military and civilian personnel were trained and equipped to deploy to Afghanistan, Iraq and in support of all five geographic combatant commands; furthermore, any given moment there are in excess of 90 USS NEVERSAIL personnel either on deployment preparing to deploy overseas to support ongoing combat operations. LCDR DOOR placed a high priority on mentorship and professional development, He provided one on one mentoring, group leadership development training, and career advice to the 20+ officers in the USS NEVERSAIL wardroom. Furthermore, after the 2014 Defense Equal Opportunity Management Institute command climate survey LCDR DOOR took the lead of six distinct Command Assessment Teams command climate survey. These assessment teams took a look at a broad range of topics and put in place specific steps to correct the deficiencies. The impact of implementing these recommendations was profound. Less than one year later the command re-took the survey with substantial quantitative and qualitative improvement noted. Most of all he was a consistent bedrock of decisive leadership and the command and remained highly dedicated to the welfare, morale and professional development of his personnel. Lieutenant Commander W. T. DOOR exceptional professionalism, personal initiative, and loyal devotion to duty reflected great credit upon him and were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service

Meritorious Unit Writeup Example

Explosive Ordnance Disposal Mobile Unit USS NEVERSAIL has distinguished itself as the premier mobile unit in the Navy, excelling at completing the toughest tasks with professionalism, efficiency, and precision. NEVERSAIL is the only unit assigned to Explosive Ordnance Disposal Group THREE continuously employing forces in mobile; Mine Countermeasures (MCM); Carrier Strike Group (CSG), Ranger; and U.S. Army Special Operations Force (SOF) mission areas. Its platoons perform at the highest levels and continue to receive praise from EOD, Navy, and Army supported and supporting commanders and operators. USS NEVERSAIL has especially distinguished itself during the period of March 2017 through June 2019 and is deserving of the Navy Unit Commendation. Specific accomplishments include:
Deployed as CTG 56.6/Commander Joint Task Force Troy-North (JTFT-N) to Contingency Operating Base (COB) Speicher near Tikrit, Iraq from March to September 2017 ISO Operations IRAQI FREEDOM (OIF) and NEW DAWN (OND). CTG 56.6/JTFT-N provided command and control of joint service EOD forces and specialized Counter-IED (C-IED) enablers to render safe, eliminate, and exploit explosive hazards and improvised explosive devices (IED) in direct support of Task Force Marne. Coordinated battalion efforts to support five U.S. Army, Air Force, and Navy EOD companies, six Army Weapons Intelligence Teams (WIT), and Combined Exploitation Cell-North (CEXC-N).

Responsible for all Counter-IED efforts within the 40,000 square mile area of Iraq controlled by United States Division-North (USD-N). Successfully completed 747 combat missions including, over 43,000 kilometers of route clearance operations, clearing 113 IEDs and 201 arms caches, conducting 284 post-blast analyses, and destroying 147,536 ordnance items totaling 23,403 lbs net explosive weight (NEW) of hazardous remnants of war ordnance.

JTFT-N forces conceived, planned, and executed two named operations. The first operation unilaterally destroyed 11 chemical munitions and then partnered with Iraqi Chemical Defense Company (CDC) to advise and assist in destroying 391 additional chemical munitions. The second operation was Iraqi CDC first-ever operational employment was deemed an unqualified success by U.S. and Iraqi officials. In both operations, rounds were decontaminated, packaged, moved to a safe disposal area, and destroyed without spreading contamination, reaching national level interests, and were instrumental in furthering the capacity of the Iraqi military to take control of its own chemical stockpiles and remnants of war.

Coordinated CEXC-N at COB Speicher manned by a combination of forces from Bravo Company 22nd Chemical Munitions Technical Escort Unit (B/22 CM TEU), USN EOD, individual augmentees, and civilian contractors. CEXC-N initiated forensic testing on all IED components recovered in the USD-N AOR including documents, signals, biometrics, electronics, and chemical analyses. All evidence was entered into U.S. and Iraqi national databases to track violent extremists and criminals. CEXC-N processed 464 cases yielding 148 target support packages accounting for 50 actionable targets. 18 of 24 arrest warrant support packages were approved by the Iraqi government, providing critical intelligence information used to target violent extremists.

Produced over 200 intelligence products and 700 foreign disclosure reports supporting JTF DOOR, USD-N, USF-I, and Iraqi partners critical in defeating terrorist IED networks.

Conducted 126 Iraqi partnership training events and 88 key leader engagements facilitating the transition to stability operations through efforts of advising, training, assisting and equipping Iraqi partners. As a result, Iraqi Security Forces (ISF) conducted 545 EOD missions, 104 with U.S. forces, accounting for a 100% increase in ISF unilateral responses from the previous six months.

Played a significant role in the Responsible Drawdown of Forces in Iraq, including providing logistics to reduce combat equipment by 50% over a six month period. Lauded by THIRD Infantry Division/US Division-North Commander for successfully increasing Iraq’s capacity to defeat IEDs, target IED networks, and respond to an asymmetric threat. Lessons learned will professionalize Joint EOD Tactics, Techniques and Procedures as we continue to play a significant role in the GWOT and our Nation’s Irregular Warfare strategy.
USS NEVERSAIL personnel received 90 combat awards including Bronze Star Medals, Meritorious Service Medals, Army Commendation Medals and Army Achievement Medals.

During four CIF deployments to Iraq in 2017 and 2018, EODMU SEVEN platoons provided support to US Army Special Operations Groups ONE, THREE, and FIVE to Iraq, and UAE. Conducted 113 combat missions providing expert tactical advice on booby traps and sensitive site exploitation (SSE) and identifying weapons of mass destruction (WMD) and homemade explosives (HME) development capabilities. Provided tactical intelligence and direct support during raids on suspected insurgents, helping to kill or capture high-level insurgents.

Deployed to COMFIFTHFLT in Bahrain as combined Task Group 56.1/56.9 from January to June 2018 ISO Operation ENDURING FREEDOM (OEF). Operational commander of 120 personnel including task group staff, four EOD platoons, one Mobile Diving and Salvage company, one Intelligence Exploitation Team (IET), one Combat Camera detachment, and one Maritime Civil Affairs Team (MCAT).

USS NEVERSAIL conducted underwater salvage and EOD operations in order to support maritime security, strengthen partnerships, deter disruptive countries, and counter violent extremism in FIFTH FLEET AOR. Accomplishments include:

- Provided expert leadership, planning and mentorship in the areas of C-IED, Underwater Mine Countermeasures (UMCM), Anti-terrorism/Force protection (AT/FP) Diving, Theater Security Cooperation (TSC), and Underwater Salvage and Ships Husbandry (UWSH) diving. Total dive operations included: 572 local AT/FP dives, 38 AT/FP fly-away dives, 66 ship husbandry dives, and 101 other dives, totaling over 387 hours of bottom time.
- Conducted emergent UWSH services for USS NEVERSAIL damaged controllable pitch propellers (CPP), berthed in United Arab Emirates (UAE), removing and capping propeller blades two days ahead of schedule. Divers accumulated 252 hours of bottom time over seven days while conducting in water replacement of five CPP blades. This repair was the first ever waterborne removal and capping flange installation, saving the U.S. Navy $1.4M in contracting and dry dock fees, and allowing DOOR to continue its vital mission tasking in theater.
- Coordinated interoperability training with Bahraini Ministry of Interior (MOI) including a forensics symposium. Training facilitated information exchange and fostered critical relationships. Information gained directly affected security postures and measures employed by COMUSNAVCENT.
- Developed FIFTH FLEET Concept of Operations (CONOP) on responding to multiple floating mines in the Arabian Gulf, creating the way ahead for deployed EOD forces to clear multiple floating mines if encountered.
- Planned and executed five COMUSNAVCENT Theater Security Cooperation (TSC) exercises specifically designed to further relationships and exchange EOD and diving information with partner nations in the AOR.
- As a part of Exercise EAGER LION in Jordan, conceived and executed the first mobilization of CTG 56.1 C2 element, providing proof of concept and equipment validation of such an element when needed.
- As CTU 52.1.3, USS NEVERSAIL Commander, for two international exercises, conducted C2 of U.S. and U.K. UMCM forces. Provided timely and accurate information to the overall MCM Commander ensuring a clear flow of information in order to safely conduct diving operations.
Revamped ordnance handling and requisition procedures due to loss of magazines in Bahrain. Coordinated Code retrograde ordnance shipment to Kuwait and disposed of over 29,000 pieces of unserviceable ordnance.

USS NEVERSAIL conducted intelligence and media operations to mitigate or eliminate regional threats and positively influence regional governments in the AOR. Accomplishments include:

- Integrated with Special Operations Command Crisis Response Element (SOCCRE), providing media exploitation and biometric collection to facilitate the maritime interdiction of a high value individual.
- Collected intelligence during 48 suspect vessel boardings that freed three dhows and 48 crew members from pirate control. Collected information on 62 suspected pirates at sea and turned over 15 suspects for prosecution.
- Collected first-time intelligence on foreign navies of interest to the highest levels of national intelligence, lauded as incredibly valuable.
- Provided photographic documentation of boardings, exercises, and significant operations throughout the FIFTH FLEET AOR. Collected 90,842 photographic images of which 535 were released, captured over 42 hours of video and provided written and photographic articles leading to three published Navy news stories.
- Administratively trained and supported 14 EOD platoons deployed in support of three Carrier Strike Groups (CSG), USA Special Forces and SOCCRE.

USS NEVERSAIL Platoons embarked in support of Carrier Strike Groups (CSG) onboard USS ENTERPRISE, USS BUSH, and USS EISENHOWER, conducting thousands of hours of flight deck operations, ensuring safe handling of all ordnance. Embarked EOD platoons conducted more than 200 AT/FP dives in support of strike group vessels entering ports throughout SIXTH and FIFTH Fleets AOR. Functioning as liaisons with Navy Criminal Investigation Service, and local military and law enforcement agencies, all high-value U.S.-flagged vessels operated without imminent threat of explosive hazards while in berthed in foreign ports. Additionally, embarked platoons took part in Fleet level exercises and TSC events exercising U.S. Navy EOD capabilities and demonstrating interoperability with allied nation EOD and diving forces.

The officers and Sailors assigned to USS NEVERSAIL, CTG 56.1, 56.6 and 56.9, and CTU 52.1.3, provided expert training, planning, coordination, operational management, and execution of a myriad of U.S. Navy, joint, and allied forces operating in five diverse mission areas ranging from EOD and diving to intelligence collection and exploitation. Operating on land and at sea in NORTHCOM, SOUTHCOM, EUCOM, AFRICOM, and CENTCOM AORs, and successfully meeting every mission tasking with resounding success, prove EODMU SEVEN is highly worthy the Navy Unit Commendation.
Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal Examples

Per reference W. T. DOOR, you are hereby authorized to wear the Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal (MOVSM) for outstanding community support and public service from September 2015 through October 2018.

You are justly commended for your selfless dedication and generosity in committing your personal time and efforts to the Miramar Youth Sports Program and the Partnership in Education Program. Your devotion to community service motivated you to complete over 170 hours of volunteer work throughout our San Diego community. You unreservedly devoted over 100 hours to the Miramar Youth Sports Program, partnering with fellow coaches and volunteers striving to teach adolescents the importance of sportsmanship, teamwork, commitment, and a healthy lifestyle through basketball, baseball and soccer. Additionally, you readily devoted 20 hours to the Partnership in Education Program at Encanto Elementary School, where you mentored and encouraged children in the subjects of mathematics, science, and reading, for which, for numerous classes, English was a second language. The mentorship and awareness that you demonstrated were keen to the Navy's core values. Your hard work and commitment to the community make you deserving of the award of the Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal.

The effort and commitment you have displayed embody the concept of community service and exhibit the Navy’s core values. Your selfless devotion, positive attitude, and personal sacrifice have brought great credit upon yourself and the United States Naval Service. I congratulate you on a job extremely well done!

Letter of Recommendations Examples

To Whom it may concern:

This letter is provided with my absolute strongest recommendation for LCDR W. T. DOOR to be screened for Explosive Ordnance Disposal Executive Officer.

Having worked closely with DOOR over the last 8 months, I can fully attest that DOOR is a decisive leader and meticulous manager who is able to effectively deal with all levels of the chain of command during high pressure, dynamic and rapidly developing situations. He is a man of impeccable character with a calm presence, thoughtful demeanor who maintains an excellent rapport with his peers. DOOR clearly possesses the requisite qualities and credentials needed to serve successfully as an Executive Officer.
As USS NEVERSAIL Officer, DOOR consistently proved his leadership and operational skills in the fast-paced environment of the EOD Group Operations Office as well as providing his insight and expertise to eight subordinate units. His thought process, depth of knowledge, and mission-focused mentality is exactly what we look for in our future Executive Officers.

Based on his record of sustained superior performance, proven operational experience and history of exceeding expectations, W. T. DOOR will not only succeed, but excel as an Executive Officer. He has my absolute strongest possible recommendation for selection as an Explosive Ordnance Disposal Executive Officer. I trust his judgment completely.

To Whom it may concern:

It is with great pleasure that I provide my strongest recommendation for immediate selection for W. T. DOOR to the LDO, Administration Officer (641X) Program.

W. T. DOOR leadership and performance while service at Explosive Ordnance Disposal Mobile Unit TWO, Detachment Yorktown is beyond reproach. DOOR has served in the capacity of Administrative Officer, Supply Officer, Command Fitness Leader, Command Career Counselor, First Class Petty Officer Association President (NWS Yorktown), and Small Boat Coxswain as sole support for a detachment comprised of six Explosive Ordnance Disposal detachment personnel and 14 members on the First Class Petty Officer Association. Carrying many responsibilities in a high tempo work environment, DOOR “lead from the front” approach allowed him to perform all duties and responsibilities flawlessly and meticulously. In terms of intelligence, leadership proficiency, innovation, initiative and drive, he possesses the full skill set required for an Administration Officer. Consistently an Early Promote in his evaluations as a First Class Petty Officer, I consider him an extraordinary and remarkable candidate for LDO. If selected, DOOR unlimited potential will truly be unleashed as he continues making significant contributions to our Navy.

W. T. DOOR has the leadership presence and maturity we look for in our Naval Officers. I have been most impressed with his outright professionalism, integrity, and perseverance that he consistently displays. He is a highly qualified and capable candidate who has repeatedly demonstrated his unique talents throughout his time at Explosive Ordnance Disposal Mobile Unit TWO, Detachment Yorktown. He is exactly what the Officer Community needs to lead our Sailors in the twenty first century.

If selected for this very prestigious program, I can assure you that W. T. DOOR will not let our Navy down and will undoubtedly be a future Commanding Officer. He is that good. Give him the opportunity, he will make us all proud!

To Whom it may concern:

It is quite an honor to provide a letter of recommendation for W. T. DOOR to work at the University of West Florida as an Office Administrator.

While I was the Executive Officer of Navy Explosive Ordnance Disposal Unit TWO, DOOR volunteered as our Ombudsman from October 2016 until June 2018. During that time she was the official representative to the spouses of the 125 sailors at the command. This responsibility entailed communication, resource management, social work and providing resources to the sailors and spouses. Additionally, DOOR planned and organized “pre-deployment meetings” where she would bring together the spouses of sailors deploying to Afghanistan, Iraq and Africa to make them aware of the military and social network that was available for support.

I interacted with DOOR on a biweekly basis through phone, email and in person. She was one of those unique highly organized individuals that never let seemingly minor administrative tasks slip through the cracks. If deadlines were getting close she skillfully would provide gentle and friendly reminders to ensure task completion.

W. T. DOOR greatest asset is that she’s hungry to help. She believed the work that was being done and believed in the value of helping others. Her work rivaled my paid employees as she was on call 24/7/365 and responded to any family related crises. Upon assuming the ombudsman position DOOR quickly recognized a need for communication with the families of our sailors and established a social media presence on Facebook along with professionally designed monthly newsletters.

I do offer a word of caution. If you choose to hire DOOR be sure there is ample opportunity for her to move up. I foresee her very quickly leveraging her strong organizational skills to take on additional responsibilities, excelling at those tasks, and then moving into more demanding or leadership positions.

To Whom it may concern:

W. T. DOOR IS THE BEST AND MOST QUALIFIED APPLICANT FOR IMMEDIATE SELECTION TO OCS!

I give my HIGHEST recommendation for W. T. DOOR to attend Officer Candidate School. Although not noted in previous evaluations due to her relative seniority as the junior E-4 at the command, I fully expect a hard break out during her next reporting period. Petty Officer DOOR continues to outperform her peers and is already working at a level far exceeding her pay grade. She is an intelligent, hard working sailor who displays excellent leadership qualities and motivation towards her professional and personal goals.

Unwilling to delay her professional goals within the Navy after not being selected for OCS on her first attempt, she chose to enter the Navy and EOD community as an enlisted sailor to gain knowledge and experience before submitting another OCS package. Not only did she complete EOD School, she graduated as the HONOR GRADUATE by maintaining the highest academic average in her graduating class of fourteen students.

Since completion of the EOD training pipeline, she has stood out among her peers, assuming additional responsibilities usually assigned to more experienced sailors. Throughout her EOD platoon’s deployment work-up cycle, she has consistently demonstrated an exceptional ability to solve complex problems, a trait not normally seen in most sailors of her rank. She is constantly working to improve her professional skills and gain personal qualifications. W. T. DOOR possesses the integrity, courage, and intelligence required of a successful Naval EOD Officer. When accepted, she will greatly benefit both the Navy and EOD community in an officer billet.
I need W. T. DOOR in my Wardroom today! I trust her to successfully complete any challenging assignment or mission. Her unrelenting work ethic and professionalism has earned her respect up and down the chain of command and is often noted while working with other units. Her dedication to her platoon, Command, and the Navy is fueled by a relentless pursuit of excellence.

Do not delay her selection -- SHE IS READY NOW! After her graduation from OCS, I will be calling the detailer to request orders for her back to my unit.

W. T. DOOR is available for transfer in June 2019; she is currently serving on an operational EOD platoon deploying later this year.

To Whom it may concern:

MIDN 1/C W. T. DOOR HAS MY STRONGEST ENDORSEMENT FOR SELECTION INTO THE EXPLOSIVE ORDNANCE DISPOSAL (EOD) OFFICER COMMUNITY!

Based on an interview conducted with MIDN 1/C DOOR, I believe she has the qualities to become an exceptional EOD Officer. She possesses a rare combination of intelligence, physical fitness, and leadership experience that will guarantee success as an EOD Officer.

MIDN 1/C W. T. DOOR broke out as one of the top midshipmen during her Midshipman Summer Training, as she displayed the highest levels of leadership, motivation, and teamwork. Within the realm of Recruit Officer Training Corps (ROTC), she has sought out numerous leadership positions, been nominated as the newest battalion operations officer for fall of 2019, and was selected to serve within the top four leadership positions within her unit. She has demonstrated a commitment and aptitude for taking on positions of leadership over the last four years with positions including Squad Leader, Supply Chief, Platoon Chief, Platoon Commander, and Personnel Officer.

MIDN 1/C DOOR professionalism and maturity is impressive and is instrumental in her ability to sustain outstanding scholastic and athletic performance. She is an avid athlete, serving as a member of the University of Colorado at Boulder triathlon team and the ROTC endurance team.

MIDN 1/C W. T. DOOR is a confident, driven, and determined individual. She would make an invaluable asset to the EOD community. I have complete confidence that she will excel through both training and subsequent assignment in EOD billets. MIDN 1/C W. T. DOOR is a MUST SELECT for the EOD Officer Community!

To Whom it may concern:

LT W. T. DOOR Grow has my strongest possible recommendation for assignment to Naval Special Warfare Development Group.

LT DOOR is a top performer at EOD Mobile Unit TWO and an outstanding candidate for assignment to Naval Special Warfare Development Group. He recently returned from back-to-back successful deployments as Platoon TWO TWO TWO Officer In Charge (OIC), providing four EOD teams to a Joint Task Force conducting direct action missions throughout Afghanistan. Throughout his Platoon’s initial work-up cycle, LT DOOR settled into his position of OIC quickly. In between deployments, he executed a comprehensive and rigorous training plan to overcome a 50 percent personnel turnover and qualified as Platoon Team Leader. This ensured his platoon was in the highest state of readiness prior to their second deployment. Throughout deployments, his platoon executed 131 direct action missions, resulting in the capturing and/or eliminating of 95 enemy combatants and protecting 929 women and 1740 children.

LT DOOR is an articulate and poised individual who tackles challenges head-on. On 16 July 2017, he presented one of the best EOD Officer boards that I have ever witnessed. He not only showed a commanding presence, but also a thorough understanding of the execution of all scenarios.

Throughout LT DOOR’S tour at EOD Mobile Unit USS NEVERSAIL, he has epitomized sustained superior performance and is a confident, driven, and determined officer. He will make an invaluable asset to COMNAVSPECWARDEVGRU. LT W. T. DOOR is a MUST SELECT for the Naval Special Warfare Development Group community!

To Whom it may concern:

W. T. DOOR STA-21

EOD Mobile Unit TWO conducted a three person interview with Petty Officer DOOR on 3 April 2018. He arrived looking well poised with a well prepared packet. EOD1 DOOR has the leadership presence and maturity we look for in our Naval Officers. I have been most impressed with his outright professionalism, integrity, and perseverance that he consistently displayed during this interview and during daily interaction. He is exactly what the Officer Community needs to lead our Sailors in the twenty first century. Select him for STA-21 and detail back to EODMU-2

EOD1 W. T. DOOR is highly motivated for the STA-21 program as evident by his knowledge and research into the commissioning program and EOD Officer career path. I was most impressed with the value he placed on the EOD staff officer role. EOD1 has a solid understanding of the value added when EOD officers represent our community to the Fleet and Joint Services. He has a well thought out plan, desire to make the Navy a career and a long term commitment to Navy EOD.

W. T. DOOR recommendation

It is with great pleasure that I provide my strongest recommendation for immediate selection for ENS EW. T. DOOR for lateral transfer to the EOD Community.
Based on his stellar performance onboard USS NEVERSAIL DOOR has demonstrated the traits of successful Naval Officers. He has earned his Officer of the Deck and SWO qualifications early, earned exceptional FITREPS and has set himself apart as a leader among peers.

ENS W. T. DOOR has the leadership presence and maturity we look for in our Naval Officers. I have been most impressed with his outright professionalism, integrity, and perseverance that he consistently displayed during our two meetings. He is exactly what the Officer Community needs to lead our Sailors in the twenty first century.

If selected for lateral transfer, I can assure you that ENS W. T. DOOR will undoubtedly be a future Commanding Officer. Select him now for lateral transfer and detail him to EOD Mobile Unit TWO.

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION FOR PASTOR W. T. DOOR

I have known W. T. DOOR as the worship pastor at New Hope Community Church since I started attending that Church in the Summer of 2016. During that time we have worked together planning and leading Church functions such as work days and men's groups. I have been impressed with his dedication to the Church and his desire to continue to push the Church forward to make it relevant to the demographic that the Church is serving. I believe that he shows great skill moving the Church forward while at the same time balancing the very diverse needs of other key stakeholders.

Aside from the more formal Church functions I also know DOOR on a much more personal level. Over the last 18 months we have been meeting meeting periodically for a 6:00 AM breakfast. Of all the men I know closely, DOOR is one of the most committed to his personal and professional development. He embraces personal and professional challenge and uses those challenges to better himself and the people around him. One of our favorite quotes is from JFK who said “Pray not for an easy life, Pray to be a stronger Man.” As DOOR and I go through live together it is clear he is committed to the ideals of using life's struggles to become a stronger man. As a Doctoral program candidate this program will not only make him a better man, but will better allow him to serve the community and develop those around him.

I believe that an individual's strength can also be that individual’s weakness. W. T. DOOR has the strength of keeping options open and on the table before deciding on a course of action. Unfortunately, this can also be considered a weakness as it may seem that he is indecisive or jumping from commitment to commitment. However, once he decides on a course of action he is fully committed, and I believe he will be fully successful in his Doctoral program.

W. T. DOOR is most highly recommended for the USC School of Education Doctoral Program. Your investment in him will pay great dividends both to Jason and his community. Please let me know if I can be of further assistance.
To Whom it may concern:

LT W. T. DOOR is an OUTSTANDING Naval Officer who I was fortunate enough to work with as his Executive Officer at USS NEVERSAIL. His performance during my tenure has earned my highest possible recommendation for selection to the Intelligence Community.

LT DOOR’S performance while onboard Riverine Squadron TWO was exemplary. Serving as the Assistant Officer in Charge of a 50 man detachment, he was responsible for the tactical employment of an offensive riverine capability which included intelligence collection through tactical questioning, dissemination of information and gained first hand knowledge of intelligence driven operations. Following his tour with Riverine Squadron TWO, he continued to broaden his exposure and experience with expeditionary intelligence through his GSA tour in Afghanistan. The experience he gained during these tours will significantly enhance his future contributions to the Intelligence community.

Select LT W. T. DOOR for redesignation in the Intelligence community immediately - there is no finer candidate! I welcome his assignment to my command!

YN1 W. T. DOOR

YN1 W. T. DOOR is an OUTSTANDING Petty Officer who I was fortunate enough to work with as his Executive Officer and Deputy Commander at USS NEVERSAIL. His performance during my tenure has earned my highest possible recommendation for selection as a Limited Duty Officer.

YN1 DOOR performance while assigned to Mine Countermeasures Division THREE ONE exemplary. Serving as the lead YN and Administrative Officer he set and maintained a high standard of performance and leadership to be emulated by both officer and enlisted ranks. He was an instrumental player in over 30 national, interagency, and multinational Mine Warfare exercises. His administrative involvement managing FY16, FY17, FY18, and FY19 command budget totaling 1.2M dollars were vital ensuring that all participants traveled to and from their destination and that their travel was liquidated on time with zero discrepancies. Furthermore as my Command Career Counselor YN1 was responsible for the commands first Golden Anchor Award.

Select YN1 W. T. DOOR for LDO! I welcome his assignment back to my command!
To Whom it may concern:

It is my distinct pleasure to nominate LT W. T. DOOR for the RADM Thomas A. Brooks Intelligence Junior Officer of the Year Award. Hands down, she is the highest impact officer in a command that prides itself on consistently providing direct, timely and comprehensive intelligence to the warfighter, whether it is forward deployed alongside operator counterparts or from garrison.

Since her arrival at KENNEDY, LT DOOR has been an absolute superstar, leading the pack (to include the O-4s)! She demonstrates deep, penetrating knowledge of the adversary faced by our Navy Irregular Warfare customers and her professionalism in leading military and civilian intelligence analysts has ensured KENNEDY remains on the cutting edge of deployed intelligence support.

A standout among standouts in this high OPTEMPO command, LT DOOR has earned my full faith and confidence. More importantly, she has earned the trust of her operator counterparts. Their by-name request for the exemplary intelligence support she provides is testament to the esteem in which her efforts are held.

LT W. T. DOOR is an asset to the Information Dominance Corps and the Naval Intelligence community. Further, her consistently outstanding performance is well deserving of recognition as 2018 RADM Thomas A. Brooks Intelligence Junior Officer of the Year Award (IJOY).
